By submitting this registration form, the undersigned applicant agrees to the following:

1. Tribal Probate Court requires that every pleading, motion, and other paper filed with the court be signed by at least one attorney/advocate of record or, if the party is not represented by an attorney/advocate, by notarized signature of the interested party.
2. By this registration, the applicant consents to the electronic service of pleadings and other papers as set forth in the Warm Spring Tribal Probate Code 320.
3. Applicant agrees that once registered, he or she will electronically file all documents.
4. Applicant understands that originals of all electronically filed pleadings, affidavits, and other documents that contain original signatures, must be filed with the Probate Office and a copy must be maintained by the attorney of record or the party originating the document.
5. Applicant agrees to comply with the court's Electronic Filing Procedures, as amended from time to time.

Technical Requirements:

- A. Each Participant is responsible for ensuring that their email addresses, primary and alternate, are current. The Participant must maintain an e-mail account with enough storage space to receive electronic notices from the court. Note that failed e-mails are returned to the court and will be deleted from the system.
- B. Tribal Probate Court generated e-mail is sent by FileClerk@NativeProbate.org. Do not reply to this e-mail address. Participants who have questions about an e-mail should contact the Court Administrator at CourtAdmin@NativeProbate.org.
- C. Due to the volume of e-mail messages from the Tribal Probate Court, your Internet Service Provider ("ISP") may view the Court's generated e-mail as spam. To avoid ISP blocking of the Court's messages, the ISP account should be set to permit all e-mails from CourtAdmin@NativeProbate.org (commonly known as "whitelisting" an email address).
